TRANSPORTATION & TRAVEL INFORMATION

AIR TRAVEL

Pleasant Holidays helps you choose travel options that suit your individual needs. When you are ready to visit Europe, ask us about First, Business and Economy Class service on these airlines:

RAIL TRAVEL

Eurostar rail service is available between select cities, including confirmed seat assignments. Travel time between London and Paris is about two hours 15 minutes each way through the Channel Tunnel that connects England and France.

In Italy, rail service with confirmed seat assignments is offered on Trenitalia, including high-speed trains and in multiple classes of service. Routes connecting Florence, Milan, Rome and Venice are available. Travel times vary, ranging from 90 minutes to 4.5 hours depending on destinations.

HYDROFOIL TRAVEL

Hydrofoil service for travel between the Greek Isles on Hellenic Seaways and SeaJets via speed boats or ferries is available. Service with confirmed seat assignments is offered in First and Economy classes.

TRANSPORTATION & TRAVEL INFORMATION

RENTAL CARS AND TRANSFERS

A wide selection of rental cars is available through Avis in Barcelona, Berlin, Florence, Milan and Rome; or through Enterprise in Ireland. Choose from vans, 4-wheel drive/SUV, premium, convertible, intermediate, compact and economy cars. Some countries require the presentation of an International Driver's Permit (IDP) along with a valid license. To learn more about an IDP and how to obtain one, consult your travel professional.

Private transfer service is available in most of our Europe destinations, including assistance with water taxis in Venice. Shared transfers are also available in London, Mykonos, Naxos, Paros and Santorini.

HOTEL STAR CLASSIFICATIONS

- ★★★★★ Utmost luxury with exquisite service and amenities
- ★★★★☆ Deluxe accommodations and comprehensive guest services
- ★★★☆☆ Comfortable accommodations and modern amenities
- ★★☆☆☆ Basic accommodations and standard amenities

Note: Star ratings are based on U.S. standards; local European ratings may differ.

TRAVEL INFORMATION

CLIMATE

With so much to see and do indoors as well as out, Europe is a popular travel destination year-round. The weather will, understandably, vary by region. Some hotels or destinations are seasonal, accepting travelers only during the warmer months. These destinations include Greece; Monaco; Venice, Italy and the South of France.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

A U.S. passport valid for at least six months beyond the vacation return date and a return airline ticket are required for all U.S. citizens regardless of age when traveling from the United States throughout Europe. For the most current guidelines, visit travel.state.gov.

ELECTRICITY

Electricity is 220 – 240 volts. Converters are required and adaptors vary by country.

CURRENCY

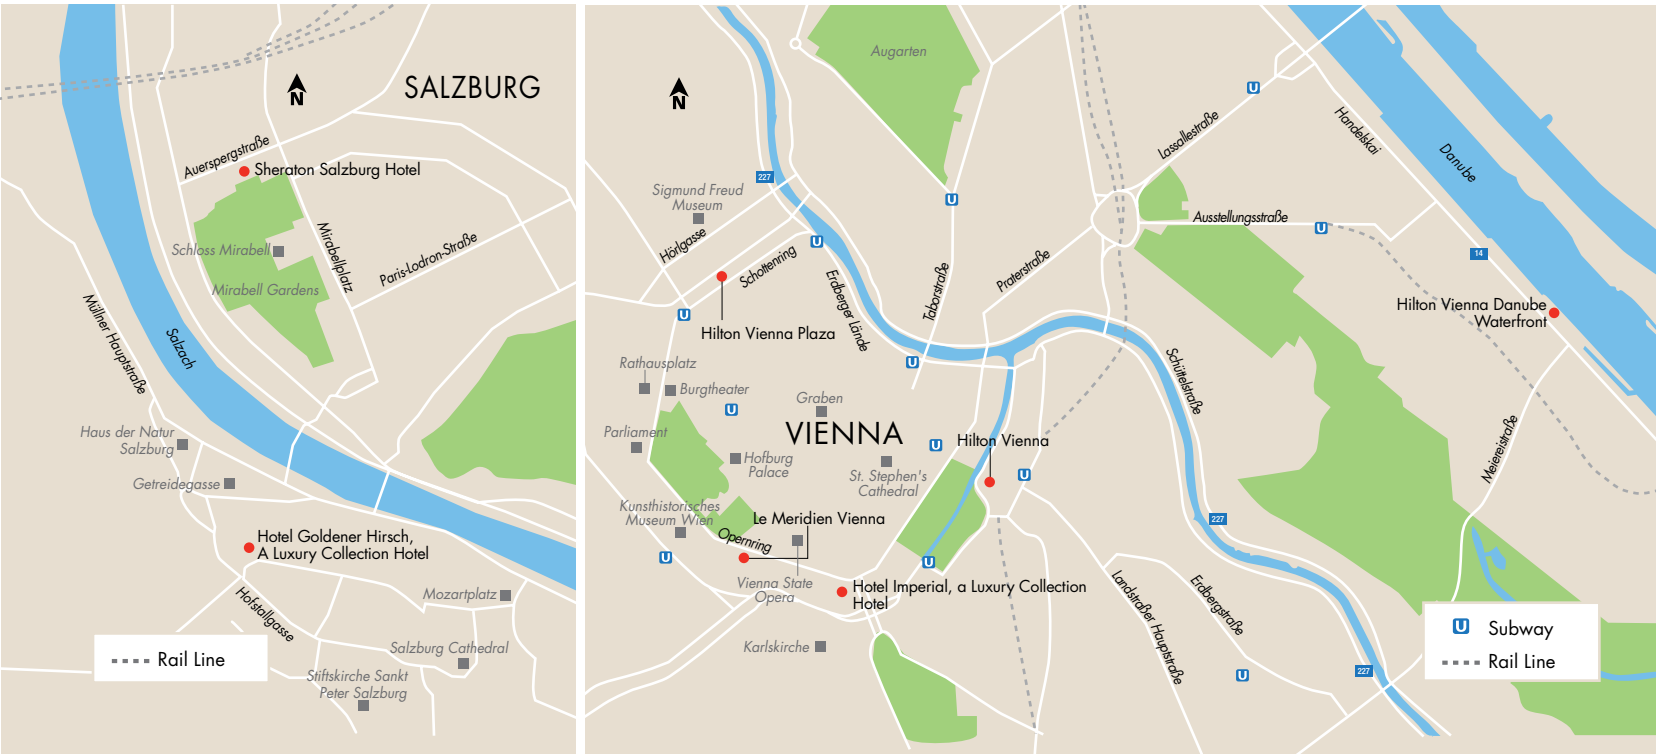

The Euro is the common currency throughout the continent. In England, the currency is the Great Britain Pound; in the Czech Republic it's the Koruna; in Denmark it's the Krone; in Hungary it's the Forint and in Switzerland it's the Swiss Franc. ATMs and currency exchange locations are common throughout the cities.

CITY TOURIST TAXES

Some destinations in Europe have an additional city tourist tax that cannot be included in the hotel rate. Rates vary by city, but are charged per person per night and must be collected by the hotel during your stay. You will be advised at time of booking if an additional city tourist tax applies to your stay.

Discover the bustling capital city of Vienna with its blend of imperial traditions and modern architecture or the baroque charms of Salzburg, Mozart’s scenic birthplace.
