/10 Day Canadian Arctic in the Footsteps of Franklin

One Ocean Expedition

In 1845, explorer Sir John Franklin set sail from England with two ships, HMS Erebus and HMS Terror, in search of a Northwest Passage across what is now Canada's Arctic. The ships and crews vanished, prompting a massive search that is only now coming to a close. A breakthrough was made in September 2014 when an expedition led by Parks Canada discovered the wreck of HMS Erebus. On 12 September 2016, the Arctic Research Foundation announced that the wreck of Terror had been found in Terror Bay, off the southwest coast of King William Island.

This voyage will appeal to both lovers of wildlife and the dramatic history of early polar exploration. Trace the routes of the early explorers who sailed – and perished – in these waters as they sought a way through the fabled Northwest Passage. The itinerary includes a visit to one of the largest migratory bird sanctuaries in the world, and you will enjoy frequent sightings of seals as well as beluga whales. The mythical narwhal inhabits these waters, and you will hopefully also encounter polar bears at special locations that have been discovered over the years.

Terms and Conditions

Bookings:

Bookings can be made through our friendly reservation staff, or by visiting your local travel agent or travel wholesaler. For maximum choice, it is recommended that your holiday be booked as far in advance as possible. We are happy to offer prices on any of our programs in either Canadian or US dollars.

Price Guarantee:

Prices in this brochure are based on costs and exchange rates as of July 1, 2016. For reasons of price stability, some prices may be listed in US Dollars. Should these currency exchange rates change significantly it may be necessary to add a small surcharge to the price of your tour. However, no surcharge will be made in respect to exchange rate variations once full payment has been received by Anderson Vacations.

Deposit and Final Payment Policies:

A $500 deposit per person is required at the time of booking to hold space on any travel program listed in our brochures. Some specific tours may have a higher deposit requirement. Final payment is required at least 60 days prior to the date of departure. For bookings made within 60 days of departure, full payment is required at time of booking. Where the tours include expedition style cruising, river cruising, train journeys and the like, exceptional payment schedules may apply and these will be informed to you at the time of booking.

Booking Changes:

If you wish to change your reservation after confirmation by Anderson Vacations, we will try our best to accommodate your request. A service charge of $100 per amendment will apply in all cases to cover administrative and communication costs. Upgrades will be charged at the rate of the upgrade. Separate travel supplier change fees may apply depending on the specific content. Some flight itineraries might allow changes however you will be responsible for a change penalty of $300 per person plus any additional charges for the new airfare.

Cancellations, Refunds and Transfers:

Should you need to cancel your trip, you (or your authorized travel agent) must notify us in writing by letter, e-mail, or by fax immediately. Deposits are non-refundable, though if you cancel more than 60 days prior to tour departure date, the deposit paid is transferable to any other tour taken within 12 months of the original tour start date, minus a $100 per person transfer fee. For cancellations made less than 60 days prior to departure, all deposits and payments made are 100% non-refundable, non-transferable. Name changes are not permitted. Insurable risks may be covered under trip cancellation insurance policies, if purchased. We strongly urge all travellers to ensure that they are protected against possible risks with adequate travel insurance. We are not able to grant partial refunds for any unused portion of a tour or for voluntarily missed meals, sightseeing, transport, etc. after the commencement of the tour. All airline tickets are non-refundable and valid only for the flight(s) indicated.

We may need to cancel or amend tour departures if forced to do so by circumstances such as war, civil or political unrest or what is commonly referred to as force majeure. In these instances we will refund all payments made in full if cancellation takes place more than 60 days prior to tour start date. If cancellation occurs within the 60 day period, we will offer to delay the tour to another similar departure within 12 months of the original tour start date; or, if circumstances do not permit, an alternative will be offered at that time. We will not be responsible for costs associated with re-issuance or extension of visas, airline change fees, or for any other compensation.

If we cancel your tour due to insufficient enrolment, we will endeavour to find an alternative tour for you. If this is not acceptable, all monies paid will be refunded in full and will constitute full settlement. We will not be responsible for any expenses incurred, such as visas, independently purchased airfare, or any other compensation. Notice of cancellation due to insufficient enrollment in any program will be given approximately 60 days prior to departure.

Travel Insurance:

Anderson Vacations STRONGLY RECOMMENDS adequate travel insurance to all persons travelling to all destinations. Travel insurance can be purchased to cover penalties in the event a customer needs to cancel or change their travel plans due to unforeseen circumstances. Travel insurance can also provide medical and emergency assistance protection during travel, as well as loss and delay coverage. Visit your travel agent, travel wholesaler or call one of our insurance specialists for details. If the traveller does not carry travel insurance, all hospital and medical expenses are the traveller's responsibility and no refunds for unused travel arrangements can be provided.

Visas/Passports:

Holding valid travel documents is the responsibility of the traveller. A passport valid for six months beyond date of travel is required for entry into Canada and Alaska. Visa-exempt foreign nationals are expected to have an Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) to fly to or transit through Canada. If you request an eTA you can apply for this online. Please discuss this with your travel agent or one of our specialists at the time of booking.

Documentation:

Travel vouchers, tickets, departure details and local travel representatives contact details will be provided as part of our final tour documentation. All documentation is sent electronically. Airline tickets are as good as cash. Lost travel and hotel vouchers will require a $50 processing fee to resend.

Is there a Surcharge for Small Groups (under ten participants)?

We pride ourselves on providing "a small shared group experience." on our Tours of Distinction and a quality group experience on our Classic tours. In the event that we have fewer than ten participants on any tour we may offer a "small-group surcharge" to ensure that the tour runs as scheduled. This fee, which may be up to 15% of the "land" portion of the tour, will be offered to you as an option to continue with the trip. This fee covers the costs associated with operating a smaller sized tour group.
