Included Japan Essentials Experiences

Imperial Palace in Tokyo

Located on the former site of Edo Castle, a large park area that houses the residence of Japan's Imperial Family is surrounded by moats and massive stone walls.

Kinkakuji Temple in Kyoto

Asakusa in Tokyo

Asakusa's main attraction is Sensoji, a very popular Buddhist temple, built in the 7th century. The temple is reached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing visitors with a variety of traditional, local snacks and tourist souvenirs for centuries.

Nijo Castle in Kyoto

Built by the founder of the Edo Shogunate, this castle surrounded by stunning gardens is famous for its architecture, decorated sliding doors, and "chirping" nightingale floors.

National Park in Hakone

Japan's highest mountain and the focal point of the Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park is a near-mythical national symbol immortalized in countless works of art.

Floating Garden Observatory in Osaka

An open air observatory at 567 feet high from which you can enjoy stunning views of the city and the bay. It features a see-through glass elevator and two floating escalator shafts.

TOKYO

Famous for its neon-lit landscape and towering skyscrapers, Tokyo is also home to sprawling parkland, peaceful shrines and temples, and lovingly tended gardens.

Included Japan Discovery Experiences

Sumida River in Tokyo

Many water buses travel along the Sumida River, one of the city's most famous rivers. The many bridges that span the river have each been uniquely designed.

Kanazawa Castle in Kanazawa

The seat of the powerful Maeda Clan, lords of Kaga, from 1583 to the end of the Edo Period, Kanazawa Castle was a feudal domain ranking second only to the Tokugawa in terms of size and wealth.

National Park in Hakone

Japan's highest mountain and the focal point of the Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park is a near-mythical national symbol immortalized in countless works of art.

Nomura Samurai House in Kanazawa

The house has a coffered ceiling totally made of Japanese cypress and paintings on sliding-door panels. The garden inside the residence has a Japanese bayberry over 400 years old and a meandering stream surrounded by ancient rocks.

Higashiyama Temples in Takayama

One of the city's best preserved historic districts is a great place to experience traditional old Kyoto, especially between Kiyomizudera and Yasaka Shrine, where the narrow lanes, wooden buildings, and traditional merchant shops invoke a feeling of the old capital city.

The Golden Pavilion in Kyoto

SOUTH KOREA

This trend-leading country engages visitors with impressive modernity and ancient history. Topped by Seoul, a thriving city that enlivens the senses, the rest of South Korea shines in beautiful contrasts. Famous seafood, beaches, and hot springs complement the vibrant pulse of Busan's nightlife. Jeju, the "Island of the Gods," shares spectacular sunsets and majestic waterfalls with visitors looking to venture beyond the bustle.

Included Taiwan Essentials Experiences

Chiang Kai-Shek Memorial Hall in Taipei

A national monument dedicated to the memory of Chiang Kai-Shek, the leader of Republic of China until 1975. Learn about his life and glimpse the history that helped shape contemporary Taiwan.

Fo Guang Shan Buddhist Monastery in Kaohsiung

Find respite from the hustle and bustle of the nearby city at this monastery, with beautiful, wholly unique grounds. One intriguing monument of this monastery is the 400-foot, gold statue of Buddha.

National Palace Museum in Taipei

This museum plays host to one of the world's largest and arguably finest collections of Chinese art. The vast collection covers treasures in painting, calligraphy, statuary, bronzes, lacquerware, ceramics, jade, and religious objects.

Kenting National Park in Taitung

At the southern tip of Taiwan, limestone cliffs, low mountains, and hilly terraces abound. Visit one of the top ten tropical gardens in the world and walk along one of the beaches, perfect for a swim in the turquoise waters.

Wenwu Temple in Sun Moon Lake

Temples abound throughout Taiwan and this is one of the finest. This temple exemplifies the Chinese tradition in creating a temple that pays homage to the patron gods of civil and martial matters. All three halls illuminate Taiwan's intellectual and spiritual life.

East Coast National Scenic Area

This national scenic area is rich and unique in its terrain and ecology. Traveling through this beautiful region one can enjoy sightseeing, rafting, whale-watching, and diving, in a region of Taiwan that has one of the highest densities of thriving indigenous cultures.

TAIPEI

The thriving capital of Taiwan exemplifies the ambition and pride of the Taiwanese. Its ubiquitous parks, often found every few blocks, give communities the chance to gather. Taipei may seem happenstance at first glance but at a deeper look, everything has a purpose. Welcoming and generous, cosmopolitan and mysterious, this city models itself after its charming locals.

Bagan

MYANMAR ESSENTIALS

Yangon, Bagan & Mandalay

Go back in time to a more simple life! Many consider the Burmese people the most welcoming and engaging hosts in the world. Whether you're in the commercial hub of Yangon, or in a world removed in the temple town of Bagan, this vacation will give you a true taste of Myanmar and its cultures.

6 NIGHTS INCLUDES

- Private Arrival & Departure Transfers Per City
- 1 Night Yangon
- 2 Nights Bagan
- Private Bagan City Tour
- 2 Nights Mandalay
- Private Mandalay City Tour
- 1 Night Yangon

7 Days/6 Nights from $1,249

Departs Daily from Yangon

Pricing based on the following properties: Kandawgyi Palace Hotel, Yangon; Aye Yar River View Resort, Bagan; Sedona Hotel, Mandalay. Hotel upgrades available.

Included Myanmar Essentials Experiences

Irrawaddy River in Bagan

Medieval Bagan exists in riverbank life today: the bullock carts and ox-ploughs, the tiered pagodas atop rambling teak monasteries, and the villages of thatched homes raised on stilts.

Shwezigon Paya in Bagan

One of the most significant religious buildings in Myanmar marks an important development in the relationship between traditional Burmese religion and Theravada Buddhism.

Shwenandaw Kyaung in Mandalay

Featuring lavish carved panels, this teak monastery is famous for its elaborate carvings, particularly the interior gilded Jataka scenes (past-life stories of the Buddha).

Kuthodaw Paya in Mandalay

Comprised of a gilded pagoda, hundreds of shrines housing inscribed marble slabs, and several pavilions. The pagoda is also called "the world's largest book" due to the 729 marble slabs inscribed with Buddhist teachings.

National Museum in Yangon

The highlight of this museum is the spectacular 26-foot high, jewel-encrusted Sihassana (Lion Throne), which belonged to King Thibaw Min, the last king of Myanmar.

Shwedagon Pagoda in Yangon

Gleaming in gold and decorated with diamonds, this expansive pagoda is a spectacular work of Burmese Temple architecture and is the holiest Buddhist shrine in Myanmar.

YANGON

You'll quickly find that beneath the surface of Myanmar's largest and most commercially prosperous city is a cultural capital worth its weight in the gold of its temples.

Reclining Buddha at Wat Pho in Bangkok

One of the largest temple complexes in the city and famed for its giant reclining Buddha that measures 150 feet long and is covered in gold leaf.

Mekong River from Chiang Rai

The Mekong begins in Tibet, follows a meandering course through China and northern Laos, and meets the Thai border at the Golden Triangle. A must-see for cultural travelers, the Mekong has united and divided Southeast Asia for millennia, and still today is a main commerce route.

Wat Jed Yod in Chiang Mai

Explore one of the most important, yet least visited Buddhist temples while in Chiang Mai. An unusually asymmetrical exterior with some of the finest sculpted figures. While many parts are missing, you can still see the fine detail in the artistry of this temple.

Phi Phi Ley from Phuket

Guarded on all sides by soaring, jagged cliffs, this island captures its visitors with its spell binding beauty. Coral reefs teem with marine life beneath the crystal-clear, azure waters, which make it the perfect place to snorkel or simply bask in all of its loveliness.

Wat Phra That Doi Suthep in Chiang Mai

The wondrous and holy temple of Wat Phra, located near the top of Doi Suthep, boasts architecture, statues, murals, and shrines that are nothing short of breathtaking.

The Monkey Beach from Phuket

Northwest of Loh Dalam Bay, the hidden cove of Ao Ling (Monkey Bay) is home to a colony of friendly monkeys who love to climb onto the legs of their guests for a banana and a smile.

BANGKOK

This dynamic city's wealth of rich cultural landmarks and thrilling attractions, in addition to its notorious entertainment venues, has made Bangkok synonymous with exoticism.

Included Thailand Discovery Experiences

The Emerald Buddha in Bangkok

See one of the most well-known Buddhas in the world. The purpose-built temple is home to a Buddha image carved from a large solid piece of emerald green jadeite of Burmese origin, clothed in gold, who watches over the personal chapel of Thailand's royal family in the Royal Palace.

Wat Chaiwatthanaram in Ayutthaya

Cultural historians identify this temple, set in ancient Ayutthaya, as the most emblematic of Buddhism's influence on Thai society. Built during the height of the Siamese Empire, this impressive, Khmer-style temple has been preserved to be marveled at by visitors from around the world.

Floating Market at Damnoen Saduak from Bangkok

This buzzing market with colorfully clad merchants paddling along in sturdy canoes is at its best in the early morning before the crowds arrive. Few experiences rival a floating market and this is one of the most popular.

The Golden Triangle from Chiang Rai

The confluence of the Mekong River and the Ruak River forms a triangle with the borders of Thailand, Myanmar, and Laos. Prime spots visited are a golden Buddha and the Hall of Opium, a historic museum that outlines the history of the region.

River Kwai from Kanchanaburi

During World War II, the Japanese used Allied prisoners of war to build a railway from Thailand to Burma so they could supply their army without the dangers of sending supplies by sea. This is a great option for history buffs and cultural travelers alike.

Phang Nga Bay from Phuket

A melting pot of Buddhists, Thai-Chinese, Muslims, and even sea gypsies in a coastal province on the Andaman Sea offers superb natural beauty both onshore and underwater, making it a must-do for those who enjoy combining history and nature's wonders in the same experience.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Passport Information – Passport number, expiration date, and date of birth may be required to confirm services.

Passport Name – Passenger's full passport name, date of birth, and gender are required to hold airline space. Failure to provide correct passport names can result in the loss of airline space, and any penalties associated with incorrect names are not the responsibility of Avanti Destinations or the airlines. Name corrections may not be possible on some carriers and, if possible, may require a fee or a complete cancellation and rebooking.

Passport/Visa/Health – Passengers are responsible for obtaining a valid passport, and any necessary visa and health documentation required by the country/countries they wish to enter or transfer through. Avanti Destinations accepts no responsibility for cancellations due to lack of proper travel documentation, passport validity, or immunizations.

Airline Tickets – Tickets purchased from Avanti Destinations are contracted fares and thus carry restrictions and penalties for any change, however slight. Airline tickets are non-endorsable, non-transferable. An itinerary is sent immediately from Avanti Destinations so that all of the information can be checked before payment is made and tickets are issued. Prior to payment, airlines may impose fuel surcharges or tax increases with or without notification, which are the responsibility of the passenger. Once payment is made, Avanti Destinations considers that the information contained on the itinerary to be correct and any fees associated to changes or cancellation are the responsibility of the travel agent or passenger.

Schedule Changes – Airlines reserve the right to change schedules or routings at any time. It is the passengers' responsibility to contact the airline 72 hours prior to departure and on the day of departure to reconfirm their flights. Any passenger that misses their flight due to a schedule change will not be reimbursed by Avanti Destinations for expenses resulting from a missed flight. Schedule changes may result in lost seat assignments, including upgraded seats and cabins.

Discrepancies – It is the responsibility of the passenger to ensure all arrangements are booked as requested and that the itineraries contain no errors. Avanti Destinations accepts no responsibility for discrepancies between verbal quotes/information and written quotes/information. After payment has been made all information contained on this itinerary is considered correct by Avanti Destinations. All fees are the responsibility of the travel agent or passenger. Fees will apply up to the full amount paid.

Exceptions – Any exception/waiver to these terms and conditions are not valid unless given in writing by Avanti Destinations.

Responsibility – Avanti Destinations is the tour operator. Avanti Destinations, its agents, and representatives act as agents only for purchasers of these packages, in making and securing all arrangements for transportation, sightseeing, hotel accommodations, and other services related to the program. Avanti Destinations is not responsible for errors and omissions contained in its brochures, nor is it liable for acts of God, fires, acts of government and other authorities, wars, civil disturbances, riots, terrorist acts, strikes, thefts, incidents at sea, land or air travel, and other similar acts or incidents beyond its ability to control.

Transfers and Baggage – Portage and baggage handling is not included with transfers unless specifically stated on the transfer voucher. Baggage allowance is limited, and varies by country and vehicle type. As a general rule, one medium-sized suitcase and one carry-on bag per person are allowed, and the carry-on bag should fit on the passenger's lap. A larger vehicle must be booked in advance for large size bags and additional baggage. Failure to do so could result in additional charges to be paid locally, or cancellations of services with no refund.

Air Conditioning – Avanti Destinations is not responsible for air conditioning standards or availability, as these factors can vary greatly between properties and countries.

Wheelchair Accessible Facilities – Requests for accommodations to meet specific physical requirements, such as wheelchair accessible rooms, must be made at the time of booking and are subject to availability. A form detailing the limits of mobility and description of mobility assistance devices may be required.

Car Rentals – Exclusive rates include unlimited mileage, VAT and liability insurance. Inclusive rates include unlimited mileage, VAT, collision damage waiver, theft protection, and liability insurance. All other fees or charges are the responsibility of the client and are paid locally. Any pre-determined fees advised by Avanti Destinations to be paid locally are subject to change. Vehicles returned early or retrieved late will not be refunded for the unused rental days.

Rates – All rates are subject to change until paid in full.

Deposits – For bookings made more than 61 days prior to departure, a deposit of $150 per person is due within 7 days to activate the booking and avoid cancellation. Additional deposits may be required for certain products, and will be indicated on the initial quote. Payment of the deposit constitutes acceptance of the itinerary and deposits are non-refundable once paid.

Holiday Season Conditions – Special payment guidelines may be required for travel during the holiday seasons (Dec. 15, 2016-Jan. 16, 2017 & Apr. 9-16, 2017). This may result in higher deposits, additional charges or more restrictive cancel penalties, and are subject to change without notice.

Full Payment – Full payment is due 60 days prior to departure, unless otherwise indicated. Avanti Destinations reserves the right to cancel a booking if full payment is not received on time. Bookings made less than 60 days prior to departure require full payment to activate the booking and payment constitutes acceptance of the itinerary. Bookings made under 14 days prior to departure require full payment immediately.

All Deposits are Non-Refundable – Avanti Destinations reserves the right to treat any booking as canceled by you if the balance is not paid by the option period specified on the booking.

Non-Refundable Items – The following are purchased by Avanti Destinations upon receipt of full payment and are non-refundable under any circumstances: published airfare, cruises, rail tickets, travel insurance, theatre tickets, entrance fees, shipping fees, handling fees, processing fees, and partially-used airline tickets.

Refund Applications – Refunds of purchased travel components must be requested no later than 30 days after the passenger's return to the US. Supporting documentation may be requested to process post-travel claims.

Changes/Cancellations

If you change the land portion of the trip after the initial deposit is received, a revision fee of $25 per person may be charged. Total cancellation fees are dependent upon the type of components purchased. Each component carries with it different types of fees.

Days from Departure	Fee Per Person/Per Tour
Prior to full payment	Deposit
Full payment date up to 8 days prior to departure.....	Deposit plus restrictions below
7 to 1 day(s) prior to departure.....	$250pp plus restrictions below
Day of departure or No Shows.....	100%

Air Cancellations – Upon receipt of full payment, airline tickets are issued and carry a penalty of anywhere between a minimum of $200 per person to no refund based on the type of fare that is purchased. You will be advised at the time of purchase of the appropriate penalties. Name changes/corrections are considered full cancellations and will be subject to the same cancellation penalties. Any penalties associated with incorrect names are not the responsibility of Avanti Destinations or the airlines. In limited cases, where name a correction is feasible, a $50 name correction fee will be assessed.

Cruise Cancellations – Cancellation policies for cruises vary by cruise line and may be more stringent than those imposed by Avanti. You will be advised of the appropriate cancellation penalties at time of booking. Most cruises are 100% non-refundable.

Rail Cancellations – Upon receipt of full payment, the following tickets are issued and are non-refundable under any circumstances: seat reservation fees, sleepers, couchettes, and rail processing fees. Rail passes and open tickets are subject to a 15–100% cancellation charge.

Additional Cancellation Fees – Some of the properties and services offered by Avanti Destinations have their own cancellation fees. These fees are in addition to any cancellation fees imposed by Avanti, and may not always be disclosed by the property or service provider until the time of cancellation. Any pre-determined fees of which Avanti is advised in advance will be listed with that property or service on your invoice.
